Concord College Summer School

Scholarship Competition 2018/19

Winter Competition Information

What is the competition?

What makes a summer at Concord College special?

Tell us what you think makes Concord College Summer School so special. This could be based on something you have heard, seen or read, or a memory from your previous experience.

This is a creative competition; which means it is up to you how you present your idea, providing it is appropriate and safe!

Think about the topic, the structure and the design. Plan your submission carefully, and be sure to review it for accuracy and authenticity.

Ideas for your submission

You can enter this competition by writing an essay, poem or story (maximum 500 words), designing a t-shirt, poster or postcard, creating a podcast, or even making a movie* about the best things about Concord College Summer School.

*For all types of entry, including if signing up for an online account, please get your parent / guardian permission. Ensure you get permission from other people involved before taking photos / making videos / using quotes.
